

Virtual ISHEN 19th Symposium 2021

PROGRAM AT A GLANCE

October 6	WHAT WE HAVE — update on state of the art
12.30–12.40	Welcome by ISHEN president Sara Montagnese, University of Padova
12.40–14.00	Basic science in hepatic encephalopathy
14.00–14.30	Break
14.30–16.20	Hepatic encephalopathy diagnosis
15.50–16.20	Break
16.20–17.30	Hepatic encephalopathy treatment
October 7	WHAT IS HAPPENING — youngsters and posters
12.30–13.15	Basic science: Oral abstract and poster presentations
13.15–13.30	Short break
13.30–14.30	HE Diagnosis: Oral abstract and poster presentation
14.30–15.00	Break
15.00–16.00	HE Treatment: Oral abstract and poster presentation
16.00–16.15	Session summary
16.15–16.30	Break for poster and abstract scoring
16.30–17.30	Tour of the Padova University Hall in celebration of its' 800 years
October 8	WHAT WE NEED — a look to the near future of HE prognostication, diagnosis, and treatment
12.30–13.40	The future in hepatic encephalopathy basic science
13.40–14.00	Break
14.00–15.20	The future for hepatic encephalopathy diagnosis
15.20–15.40	Break
15.40–16.20	The future in hepatic encephalopathy treatment
16.20–16.50	Andres Blei lecture
16.50–17.00	Short break
17.00–17.30	Closing remarks: Announcement of the winner of the Juan Córdoba Young Investigator Award and best poster Closing remarks by the president and a look towards the next symposium by the president elect Prof. Karin Weissenborn, Hannover Medical School, Germany

